Welcome to Immanuel's Visual Arts Scholarship program for 2026

Overview

At Immanuel, we believe in the power of art to transform perspectives and inspire creativity. Our Visual Arts Scholarships program celebrates students who see the world differently and aren't afraid to express their unique artistic vision. We're passionate about nurturing young artists and helping them develop their creative voice.

We're looking for students who are excited by artistic expression, who understand the power of visual communication, and who want to be part of our thriving creative community. Whether your child is a talented painter, a skilled sculptor, or someone who experiments across different mediums, we're here to support their artistic journey.
